Once the competition has ended, the data will be archived and retained for a minimum period of two years, after which they will remain archived solely for documentary purposes by the RFEK and DA. Such data may be transferred to companies involved in the administrative management of the competition.

You are informed of the possibility of withdrawing your consent at any time. However, such withdrawal will not affect processing carried out prior to the withdrawal, nor processing related to the competition, such as recording, reproduction and streaming or any other form of broadcasting. 3. Consequences of improper use of the RFEK Kung Fu Coach Accreditation.

If a person attempts to access the competition area without accreditation, or participates in the competition acting as a coach with an accreditation that is not current, has been altered or falsified, or involves impersonation of another person, the RFEK and DA may adopt the following measures, depending in all cases on the seriousness of the circumstances:

1. Improper use of accreditations will result in immediate expulsion from the competition.
2. If it is the first occurrence of such improper use, the persons involved will be prohibited from performing coaching functions at official competitions for a period of three months during the current sporting year.

These measures do not apply only to the coach who committed the irregularity, but also to all persons who have assisted in the improper use of the RFEK Kung Fu Coach Accreditation.
